Visitors: Roger Vogelpohl benefit advisor for Wilson Chapel of the Roses spoke to us about preplanning for final arrangements. He requested the opportunity to give a 45 minute presentation to our members.

Roger suggested a signup list with phone numbers so he could call and remind the signers when the presentation will be. Get back to him in next two weeks with proposed time for the presentation.

Minutes: Peggy Mark addressed a correction in the publicity section , Vera Westbrook is with the News Review not the Shopper. Brad made a motion to accept the minutes with the correction, June seconded the motion, motion carried.

Treasurer's report: No report, next month full report.

Building committee: Ron Elliott shared an update on the capital campaign. Mark Sherman will no longer be working for us. Melony is working on developing a group to continue the process. She has asked Sandra Johnson to help with the grant writing. The Ford foundation is on board to help, another meeting has been scheduled with them. We have received a letter from the Industrial Board in support. Mercy Hospital is eager to help us. We are on the road to getting it done. More to come soon.

Membership committee: This month we added 32 members. We have approximately 834. At the Grand opening the mayor challenged us to be the largest organization in the city. Linda Cornett will contact him to get an idea of what that number would be.

Tour group: Val reported that the tour meetings are the second Tuesday at 2:00. Need more people to attend. The next tour will be May 19th, the Iris Festival in Keiser.

Publicity: Linda Cornett thanked Treva and Linda Sheridan for helping while Linda C. was out. Linda C. also thanked Phyllis for all her help on the Valentines Dance. Thank you letters need to be sent to all donors. A Senior Center Members only recipe book fund raiser was suggested. Linda Cornett will be the committee chair.

Kitchen: Doris reported the kitchen is doing great. The Valentine dance brought in $4000.00 with $1000.00 in profit. Friday lunches are bringing in more and more people, over 60 last Friday.

Bingo: Val reported that bingo is doing good. The bingo meetings are on the second Tuesday at 10:30. The numbers on all days are increasing.

Newsletter: June reported the Newsletter looks good. Had a problem with the fold this month which caused problems in mailing, will correct for next time. Gordon French offered use of his laser printer for the newsletter. Call him at 541-440-9116 if he can help. Thanked him for his generous offer.
